INTRODUCTION

This report is the result of a survey of Rhode Island's 39 cities and towns relating to veterans', elderly, and other tax exemptions. Because personal exemptions are subject to change, the user of this publication should contact a local tax assessor for the most current information available. This survey was conducted by the Division of Municipal Finance with the cooperation of local tax assessors. We are grateful for the cooperation the tax assessors have provided.

Please note there are other military engagements that encompass a smaller period of eligible time for which veteran's exemptions are available. It is highly recommended that you contact the local tax assessor for eligibility.

Exemptions shall be applied to the property in the municipality where the person resides, and if there is not sufficient property to exhaust the exemption, the person may claim the balance in any other city or town where the person may own property. An exemption shall not be allowed to persons who are not legal residents of the State of Rhode Island. To qualify for an exemption, appropriate documentation will be required by the municipality at time of application. The seven exemption categories include:

Veterans' regular exemption

Unmarried widow/widower of qualified veteran

Veterans' exemption for totally disabled through service connected disability

Veterans' exemption partially disabled through service connected disability

Gold Star parents' exemption

Prisoner of war exemption

Specially adapted housing exemption

Section II - Elderly Exemptions

The elderly exemptions are prescribed by Title 44, Chapter 3, and Sections 13, 13.1, 13.2, 16, 32 and 39. This elderly exemption section describes the type of program, the amount of exemption or tax credit, income requirements and other eligibility requirements required by the various cities and towns. It is highly recommended that you contact the local tax assessor for eligibility.

Included in this section is an explanation of the Property Tax Relief Program administered by the State Division of Taxation and a copy of form RI-1040H Property Tax Relief Claim.

Section III - Miscellaneous Exemptions

A number of other exemptions are available to eligible citizens and businesses in the various cities and towns of Rhode Island. Section III lists the most commonly used exemptions, but this report is not inclusive of all exemptions. This survey should be used as a guide and more detailed information can be obtained by contacting the individual city or town assessor.

The notes page cites the sections of the Rhode Island General Law for the exemptions listed under miscellaneous exemptions.
